With reasonable and appropriate supports/treatment, do you consider this student to be at a place in their recovery that allows them to be capable of pursuing studies at Mount Allison, and the levels of academic stress and rigor associated with university pursuits?

YES NO

If No, please explain:

_____

_____

I have discussed the importance of support in the recovery process with this student. YES NO

In the event that their mental health status declines, the student has identified an emergency contact:

Name:_____

Relationship to student:_____

Contact information: _____

This individual is aware that they have been listed as an emergency contact. YES NO

In the event of a mental health crisis where the student is involuntarily admitted to a psychiatric unit, Psychiatric Patient Advocate Services can work with the student to ensure that the Mental Health Act and the rights of the student are respected.

Is the student currently on any police or court orders, ie: probation, undertakings, or recognizances? YES NO UNKNOWN

If yes, provide appropriate contact:

_____

_____

Using the table below, please indicate how the student's current situation is impacting their academic and life activities.

Academic and Life Activities	None	Mild	Moderate	Severe	Unknown
Testing situations
Attention levels / Concentration
Information retention / Memory
Group situations
Participation/Attendance
Sleep
Eating
Self-Care
Social interaction
Distractibility
Time management
Organization					