Explanation of changes and other important information

We will automatically calculate your goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax credit and any related provincial credit based on your family net income, province of residence, marital status, and qualified children. If you qualify for any credit for July 2025 to June 2026, we will soon let you know.

Since you claimed the disability amount, you may be entitled to open a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP). To open an RDSP, the person with the disability must be under the age of 60. For more information, visit the Employment and Social Development Canada website at canada.ca/rdsp or call 1-800-O-Canada (1-800-622-6232). For TTY service, call 1-800-926-9105.

As of the date of this notice, you have unused net capital losses from other years of $498. This amount includes any unused net capital losses created from this assessment. You can use your unused net capital losses to reduce taxable capital gains that you report this year. If you apply this amount to another year, you may have to recalculate your unused balance. This is because of the different capital gains rates for those years. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

You can avoid more interest if you pay the balance due by May 19, 2026.

Based on our records, you have unused tuition and education amounts from prior years. You can carry forward a federal amount of $22,097 and a provincial or territorial amount of $22,097 to later tax years. To make sure we calculate your unused amounts correctly, you need to file a return each year, even if you have no income to report.

If you have any questions about your assessment or need help reading your notice, please go to canada.ca/cra-notices-letters.
