Explanation of changes and other important information

We changed your federal tuition, education, and textbook amounts from $6,526 to $9,063. Based on the information you gave us, this is the most you can claim.

We changed your total federal non-refundable tax credits to $5,033 and your total New Brunswick non-refundable tax credits to $3,573.

We are sending you your reassessment notices for two or more tax years. The notice for the latest tax year will show your combined total refund or balance due. We will send you any refund you are entitled to after we reassess all your returns.

Since you claimed the disability amount, you may be entitled to open a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP). To open an RDSP, the person with the disability must be under the age of 60. For more information, visit the Employment and Social Development Canada website at canada.ca/rdsp or call 1-800-O-Canada (1-800-622-6232). For TTY service, call 1-800-926-9105.

Your net capital loss for 2021 is $79. You can use this amount to reduce any taxable capital gains that you report in other years. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

As of the date of this notice, you have unused net capital losses from other years of $498. But, if you apply this amount to any tax year other than the current one, we may have to recalculate your unused balance. This is because different years have different capital gains rates. You can use your unused net capital losses to reduce taxable capital gains that you have reported. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

We decreased the arrears interest we charged you earlier by $852.60.

Based on the information you gave us, we changed your federal disability amount (for self) from $0 to $8,662. We also changed your New Brunswick disability amount (for self) from $0 to $8,552.
