Since you claimed the disability amount, you may be entitled to open a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP). To open an RDSP, the person with the disability must be under the age of 60. For more information, visit the Employment and Social Development Canada website at canada.ca/rdsp or call 1-800-O-Canada (1-800-622-6232). For TTY service, call 1-800-926-9105.

Your net capital loss for 2022 is $419. You can use this amount to reduce any taxable capital gains that you report in other years. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

As of the date of this notice, you have unused net capital losses from other years of $498. But, if you apply this amount to any tax year other than the current one, we may have to recalculate your unused balance. This is because different years have different capital gains rates. You can use your unused net capital losses to reduce taxable capital gains that you have reported. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

Based on the information you gave us, we changed your federal disability amount (for self) from $0 to $8,870. We also changed your New Brunswick disability amount (for self) from $0 to $8,757.

Based on this reassessment, you have unused federal tuition and education amounts of $16,933 and New Brunswick amounts of $16,933. You can carry forward these amounts to later years. To make sure we calculate your unused amounts correctly, you need to file a return each year, even if you have no income to report.

If you have questions about your reassessment, please call our Individual Tax and Enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281. For individuals living in the territories (area code 867), call 1-866-426-1527.
