Notice of reassessment

We reassessed your 2020 income tax and benefit return and recalculated your balance.

We also reassessed one or more other tax returns for you. We are sending you a separate notice for each return.

The notice for the latest tax year shows your final balance and any refund you are entitled to receive.

Thank you,

Bob Hamilton
Commissioner of Revenue

Tax reassessment

We calculated your taxes using the amounts below. The following summary is based on the information we have or you gave us.

We may review your return later to verify income you reported or deductions or credits you claimed. For more information, go to canada.ca/taxes-reviews. Keep all your slips, receipts, and other supporting documents in case we ask to see them.

Note, DR (debit) is the amount you owe us and CR (credit) is the amount we owe you.

Explanation of changes and other important information

We changed your return like you asked. Before, you had to ask for a change within three years of the date we mailed you the notice of assessment for that return. But now, the Income Tax Act contains taxpayer relief provisions that let us make changes past the usual three years. Since we allowed the change under these provisions, you cannot file an objection to this reassessment.

We are sending you your reassessment notices for two or more tax years. The notice for the latest tax year will show your combined total refund or balance due. We will send you any refund you are entitled to after we reassess all your returns.

We changed your total federal non-refundable tax credits to $5,824 and your total New Brunswick non-refundable tax credits to $3,758.

Since you claimed the disability amount, you may be entitled to open a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP). To open an RDSP, the person with the disability must be under the age of 60. For more information, visit the Employment and Social Development Canada website at canada.ca/rdsp or call 1-800-O-Canada (1-800-622-6232). For TTY service, call 1-800-926-9105.

As of the date of this notice, you have unused net capital losses from other years of $498. But, if you apply this amount to any tax year other than the current one, we may have to recalculate your unused balance. This is because different years have different capital gains rates. You can use your unused net capital losses to reduce taxable capital gains that you have reported. For more information, see Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

We decreased the arrears interest we charged you earlier by $190.51.

Your refund includes refund interest of $26.19.

Because you received COVID-related benefits in 2020 and your taxable income was $75,000 or less, we are providing flexibility for paying the balance you owe on your 2020 tax return. The interest that would normally be charged starting on May 1, 2021, will be waived until April 30, 2022. We will start charging interest on any unpaid balance from your 2020 return on May 1, 2022. We are still charging interest on any unpaid balances from previous years.

Based on the information you gave us, we changed your federal disability amount (for self) from $0 to $8,576. We also changed your New Brunswick disability amount (for self) from $0 to $8,468.

We changed your federal tuition and education amounts from $8,364 to $14,084. We also changed your New Brunswick tuition and education amounts from $21,502 to $18,205. Based on the information you gave us, these new amounts are the most you can claim.

Based on this reassessment, you have unused federal tuition and education amounts of $2,538 and New Brunswick amounts of $11,607. You can carry forward these amounts to later years. To make sure we calculate your unused amounts correctly, you need to file a return each year, even if you have no income to report.

If you have questions about your reassessment, please call our Individual Tax and Enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281. For individuals living in the territories (area code 867), call 1-866-426-1527.
